Verse 1

There's silence on the mountain
And in the valleys too
Bodies have been buried
And their life here is through
But in that cold and darkness
Where the body has been laid
Death will hear the spirits
Of the body as they say

Chorus

Give me back my body
Said the Spirit to the grave
Then they'll join together
Hasten all the way
To join the team of millions
Who'll reclaim their bodies too
We'll have a celebration on that Resurrection Day

Verse 2

In one passing moment
Right before your eyes
The dead will hear the trumpet
And they'll bid the grave goodbye
The Earth has never witnessed
What will happen on that hour
Body and soul in weakness fall
But then it's raised in power

Chorus Twice
