Verse 1

When I think of where I came from
And how Jesus brought me out
From a life of shame and sorrow
Lost in sin without a doubt
With all my heart I want to praise Him
For the love He gave to me
When the precious hand of Jesus
Reached way down and lifted me

Chorus

From the depths of the pit I tried so hard
But I couldn't touch him
There in my despair I cried so loud
Yet it seemed He didn't hear me
Lost and undone, full of sin and so corrupt
God's hand reached further down
Than I could reach up

Verse 2

Like a man locked up in prison
With no one to go my bail
Every time I sought my freedom
All endeavors only failed
There I was in sin's dark dungeon
Bound by chains of misery
Until the Lord paid me a visit
Unlocked my cell and set me free

Chorus
