

I'm Glad I'm On The Inside Looking Out

Writer: Rusty Gabbard

Verse 1

In the days of Noah just before the flood
When the wicked world had all forgotten God
Brother Noah built a boat which above God's wrath did float
And the people saw that they were made of mud
Oh, the door stood open with the gangplank out
Noah and his family entered with a shout
When the scoffers stretched their necks
Noah stepped out on the deck and said
I'm so glad I'm on the inside looking out

Chorus 1

Oh, I'd rather be on the inside looking out
Than to be upon the outside looking in
When the rains began to fall, sinners on the Lord did call
But the door was shut and night was setting in Then ole Noah from the inside looking out
Gazed to Heaven beyond the water spout
And he said I thank the Lord that I took Him at His Word
I'm so glad I'm on the inside looking out

Verse 2

Good ole Daniel lived in Babylon long ago
And he had the grace to tell the devil no
Tho he prayed three times a day in that good old fashioned way
They said he to the lion's den must go
But the lions made him welcome to their home
For they knew that he was nothing but backbone
When the king looked in and said are you alive or are you dead
He was stirred as Daniel spoke in gentle tone

Chorus 2

Oh, I'd rather be on the inside looking out
Than to be upon the outside looking in
While you paced the palace floor I had nothing to but snore
Jesus put a padlock on each lions chin
Then ole Daniel from the inside looking out
Don't you think that he felt good enough to shout
Then he said long live the king and he started in to sing
I'm so glad I'm on the inside looking out
I'm so glad I'm on the inside looking out
