Verse 1

I'm not investing my money on unstable things
Nor spending my time to bring me prosperous gain
I'm walking daily by my Master's side
And I'm laying up treasures for my home in the sky

Chorus

I'm laying up treasures for my home in the sky
I'm counting my riches by the souls that I lead to Jesus Christ
It might not look like a lot to you
Not much in this world I own
For I'm laying up treasures for my heavenly home

Verse 2

Some people dream about a mansion that sits on a hill
Well, I'm all excited about the City where I'm gonna live
I want to behold the Lamb who freed me from sin
And to hear His sweet voice say, My child welcome in

Chorus Twice
