

I'm Trading My Trials For A Crown

Writer: Craig Gage Publisher: Kevin Spencer Publishing/BMI
Key: B Time: 3:23

Verse 1

So many times here below
I don't understand the way things go
And I question through the pain
Does He even know my name
I recall the things He's done
And how He gave His only Son
And now He's holding me till my race is won

Chorus

I'm trading my trials for a crown
Very soon I will lay these burdens down
I'm looking up high for He's coming down
And then I'll trade these trials for a crown

Verse 2

I don't despise the lessons learned
Yet in my heart I always yearn
To hear His trumpet sound
Then I'll lay these burdens down
I'll receive a glorious crown but I'll gladly lay it down
At the feet of my God's Beautiful Lamb

Chorus
