Verse 1

What a happy time some glad tomorrow
When we lay these heavy burdens down
In this lonesome valley, no more to roam
Having labored all through toil and sorrow
Hoping to receive a golden crown
It will all be glory in that sweet home

Chorus

In the beautiful city
Of the sweet forever
Where the River of Life
Goes ebbing by
We'll look upon the beauty
That fades no never
And happy we'll be
While the ages fly

Verse 2

Many precious loved ones will be waiting
Just across the river, deep and wide
In this lonesome valley no more to roam
Through eternity no separating
Every heart will then be satisfied
It will all be glory in that sweet home

Chorus Twice
