

My Father

Writer: Jane LeMaster
Key: G

Publishing: Kevin Spencer Publishing/BMI
Time: 3:02

Verse 1

You may have more riches than I'll ever see
You may have more wealth
Than what will ever come to me
You may have a fancy house that sits upon a hill
But my Father has built one for me upon high

Chorus

My Father owns mansions
On streets of purest gold
My Father owns gates of pearly white
And He hung the moon and the stars up in the sky
My Father who lives upon high

Verse 2

You may have more money than most folks down here
You may have so many friends that you consider dear
But my best friend went to a cross to save me from sin
And he gave me a brand new mansion that I'll be living in

Chorus

Tag

My Father who lives upon high