Verse 1

You may question the height of your mountain
You may wonder does God even care
Did He hear your cry in the midnight
When you felt that no one was there
These words are meant to encourage
I know God is always on time
And He will move your mountain
If just one stone at a time

Chorus

God will move your mountain
With the brush of His hand it can fall
No mountain too steep or valley deep
That He can't hear your call
So if you're staring through eyes of confusion
Put your trust in Him and you'll find
That God will move your mountain
If just one stone at a time

Verse 2

God knows that we're only human
And sometimes we just don't understand
Why we pray for our mountain to crumble
But when we look we see it still stands
In God's perfect plan there's a reason
Don't give up; He heard your prayer the first time
For God will move your mountain
Sometimes it's one stone at a time

Chorus
