Verse 1

How our hearts ache with grief as we say goodbye
We shall meet some day
In that City of rest on the other side
We shall meet some day

Chorus

We shall meet where no storm clouds gather
We shall meet some day
By the River of Life sparkling cool and clear
We shall meet some day

Verse 2

When we've all crossed the Stream with its rolling tide
We shall meet some day
Where no sorrow or tears ever dim the eye
We shall meet some day

Chorus Twice
