Kevin Spencer is a southern gospel singer who started singing with his family "The Spencers" when he was 3 years old. After starting his own group in 1992, Kevin Spencer and Friends he now is enjoyed by his fans as a soloist.

Kevin has witnessed many lives changed through gospel music. He is admired by his fans wherever he goes with his desire to be a blessing, and minister, while delivering a song. His greatest moments are when something he has written or sung has truly touched someone's life. He also owns and operate the Some Dawning Music Company Int'l., Inc. which is a company that includes recording, songwriting, promoting, and producing of great southern gospel music.

Kevin has released a new tribute CD to his favorite singer, the late, great Rusty Goodman. Each concert includes a special tribute to Rusty including songs from the project, Remembering Rusty, such as: Who Am I, Leavin' On My Mind, Look For Me, & I Wouldn't Take Nothing For My Journey Now. Kevin's plan is to record Volume II & III in the future with more of Mr. Goodman's greatest songs.

Kevin Spencer has recorded several #1 and #2 songs! His hit songs and fan favorites include: The Blood Is Still There, If The Rapture Was Yesterday, So Much To Thank Him For, Flow Through Me Holy Spirit, and God Bless America Again.

Kevin flies to most of his appearances, and occasionally drives to more of his local concerts. Bill Gaither has invited him to be a part of his DVD's, All Day Singing, So Glad, and Sunday Meetin' Time. He performed I Heard About A Stone, Twelve Gates To The City, and I Kept On Praying.
