

Breakin' Jail At Midnight

Writer: Roger Helton

Key: F            Time: 2:54

Verse 1

Paul and Silas in the prison beaten, broken, sore
You'd think they'd be discouraged but, they sang praises to their Lord
Then the whole place started shakin' both prisoners were set free
I guess anything can happen when God's people just believe

Chorus 1

When you're breakin' jail at midnight you've just got to sing for joy
When chains are bein' broken bound to be a joyful noise
It makes you feel like shoutin' hallelujah loud and clear
When you're breakin' jail at midnight and you know the victory's near

Verse 2

Paul and Silas knew their God would surely make a way
They knew that they were free indeed regardless of their fate
So friend don't stop believin' when you're put to the test
Just find that song deep in your heart and let God do the rest

Bridge

The victory's near
The victory's near

Tag

The victory's near
