

Heaven Will Be Worth The Journey

Writer: Marilyn Baker

Key: F Time: 3:30

Verse 1

There've been times when I've been tested, I've been tried
Well now sometimes I have passed, sometimes I've failed
Oh when I think I'll just stop and sit down along the way
Something way down in my soul begins to say
Child hold on, it'll be worth the journey when you get there

Chorus

I know Heaven will be worth the journey when I get there
Oh that City will be so wonderful, bright and fair
When I see Jesus on His throne
I'll be so glad for every time I've made myself press on
Heaven will be worth the journey when I get there

Verse 2

Oh sometimes I get so tired of traveling this weary road
I cry Lord won't You come and help me carry my heavy load
Then in the stillness of the night He takes that load; yes He makes it light
He lets me know that Heaven will be worth the journey when I get there.

Chorus Twice

Tag

When I see Jesus on His throne
I'll be so glad for every time I've made myself press on
Heaven will be worth the journey when I get there