Verse 1

A band of old pilgrims
Stood there by the river
Dreading and fearing to cross
But then here came Jesus and spoke words of comfort
Not one soul will suffer a loss

Verse 2

He led those old pilgrims across chilly Jordan
And with no fear as before
And it seems I hear the words that He whispered
I've crossed this same river before

Chorus

Each time a pilgrim has ended their journey
They stand waiting there by the shore
Jesus will meet them and lead them on over
He's crossed that same river before

Verse 3

For I know my life here will someday be over
Just as those pilgrims before
But Jesus will stand on the banks of old Jordan
He's crossed that same river before

Chorus
