Verse 1

I know I've never met the Man
Who gave His life for me
Yet, His holy presence daily I can feel
But if by chance you're taken home
Before it comes my time
Please take this message home to Him for me

Chorus

I'll meet you on the other side of Jordan
Where friends and loved ones we will ever be
I'll meet you on the other side of Jordan
And there we'll spend all eternity

Verse 2

I saw an old man standing by a casket draped in black
For fifty years it's been just you and me
And as the preacher spoke these words
To dust we shall return
I heard the old man say so tenderly

Chorus
