Verse 1

I remember when I didn't call You Lord
I was a lonely sheep that ran away from Your fold
So many years I lived in darkness
But looking back I see
It must have been You, Lord
Watching over me

Chorus

It must have been You, Lord
It must have been You
It must have been those nail scarred Hands
That brought me through
And that is why I'm here today praising You
Cause looking back, Lord, I know
It must have been You

Verse 2

Lord, Your mercy overwhelms me
And fills my heart with praise
You had Your hand upon me
Even before I knew Your grace
And when I think of all the times
That I wandered astray
If it hadn't been for You, Lord
Where would I be today

It must have been You
