Verse 1

Our eyes are like a window
They reveal the pain within
I can see your heartache
Despite your friendly grin
When I reach my hand to help you
And I ask God what to do
Then I feel Him touching me, touching you

Chorus

He will lay His hand upon me
And He'll lay His hand on you
And we'll feel His mighty power
As it flows from me to you
And I know I'm just a vessel
But your healing is overdue
And I feel Him touching me, touching you

Verse 2

Now if faith can move a mountain
Then what's standing in your way
To receive your blessing
And touch from God today
Oh, could it be you need your brother
To touch the Lord for you
Oh I feel Him touching me, touching you

Chorus

Lord I know I'm just a vessel
But their healing is overdue
And I feel Him touching me, touching you
Yes, I feel Him touching me, touching you
