Ol' Daniel Prayed

Writer: Denver Lamb, Pleasant View Music | Key: F | Time: 3:52

Chorus
Ol' Daniel prayed, three times a day.
Somewhere in a den of lions he'd steal away–and pray. Ol'
Daniel prayed three times a day.
God shut the lion's mouth, and ol' Daniel still prayed.

Verse 1
Now the king favored Daniel
For the knowledge of all dreams.
Jealousy spread through Babylon,
The men worked up a scheme.
Knowing that Daniel was praying,
Fault was found with him,
Because he prayed to God Almighty,
He was thrown in the lion's den.

Chorus
Ol' Daniel prayed, three times a day.
Somewhere in a den of lions he'd steal away–and pray. Ol'
Daniel prayed three times a day.
God shut the lion's mouth, and ol' Daniel still prayed.

Verse 2
Now the king went to his palace,
And he fasted through the night.
He was in grief, he could not sleep,
This good man had to die.
Early in the morning, he arose and went in haste,
To see if the lions devoured him,
But he heard ol' Daniel say:

Verse 3
"My God has sent his angels
To shut the lions' mouths. 'Oh, King live forever!'" Darius heard Daniel shout.
The king sent for his men,
A new decree he made that day–
Every man–fear the God of Daniel,
Whose kingdom won't pass away.

Chorus
Ol' Daniel prayed, three times a day.
Somewhere in a den of lions he'd steal away–and pray. Ol' Daniel prayed three times a day.
God shut the lion's mouth, and ol' Daniel still prayed.
