

The Hills of Old Judea

Writer: Claude Ely, Lillenas Publishing | Key: Bb | Time: 3:34

Verse 1

It was early one morning, in the hills of old Judea,
The shepherds were watching,
They were caring for their sheep.
When they heard a voice from heaven,
It spoke out aloud.
An angel was talking, to them down from the cloud.

Verse 2

Said, "In the city of Bethlehem, the son of God is born.
You'll find him in a manger, lying in a barn.
If you look towards the city, there you'll see a star.
If you follow it to its destiny, there you'll find our Lord."

Chorus

He's the Lily of the Valley,
The Bright and Morning Star.
The fairest of all others, your King and your Lord.
He'll bind the brokenhearted,
He'll the set the captive free.
He's the first, and He's the last,
The One for you and me.

Bridge

"In the city of Bethlehem, the son of God is born.
You'll find him in a manger, lying in a barn.
If you look towards the city, there you'll see a star.
If you follow it to its destiny, there you'll find our Lord."

Chorus

He's the Lily of the Valley,
The Bright and Morning Star.
The fairest of all others, your King and your Lord.
He'll bind the brokenhearted,
He'll the set the captive free.
He's the first, and He's the last,
The One for you and me.

Repeat Chorus
